About University
Galmudug State University(GSU)

Galmudug State University (GSU) was established in 2014 in central Somalia with UK funding, beginning as a teacher-training initiative delivered through SIMAD University. It later grew through collaboration with Horn of Africa University into a single, consolidated institution staffed by experienced educators.
GSU now offers diverse programs across eight faculties to around 1,000 students — drawn mainly from central Somalia, and increasingly from other regions — and plays a key role in developing higher education and advancing the country's progress.

Our Mission

Create graduates with up-to-date, marketable skills by combining innovative teaching methods with traditional classroom instruction.

Our Vision

Through scientific research and innovation, we aim to achieve teaching and learning approaches that are worldwide recognized.

Our Strategic Objectives

At Galmudug State University (GSU), we are driven by a set of strategic objectives that guide our mission of providing a holistic and transformative educational experience. These objectives are designed to cultivate an inspiring, safe, technologically advanced, and accessible learning environment that fosters growth and development. Our strategic objectives are as follows:

1. Creating an Inspiring Learning Environment
